

Transplants, Punk As Fuck

look out for ur chances they're trying to get away the voices scream inside your head just turn your amp up all the way no other lights or flashlights when it all turns grey I flip the switch I blow the charge
Your gonna change it anyway cause I know that I can't take no more

want to find a way out just get me outta here we left with all the lights on this is my worthy heir burmin up inside w/ no body on my mind (missing line)

I know that I can't live on cause I know that i can't live on

I'm not sorry that its done and I'm not sorry that I've won because I've cried my last tear because this is my freakin year

look out for ur chances
the voices scream inside your head just turn your amp up all the way
no other lights or flashlights when it all turns grey
I flip the switch I blow the charge

I know that I can't take no more
