

Trauma, A Deep Scar

There's a deep scar inside me
I was hurt twenty one years ago
I know the time heals scar...
I know that one can forget...
I know the time heals scar
I know that one can forget many things
But I can't
I still feel the same
Deep scar
Deep scar
Various cases are out of control
On callings for you with a desperate voice
I'm falling on my knees
The situation has just appeared
And there's confusion in it
Little pieces stick in my heart
The faith's hesitating
Moments of doubt are coming back to me
Deep scar
Deep scar
The bitterness is the bread
The one died a long time ago
Where are those
Who took away from me?
