

Trauma, Perplexity Of Truths

Throwing away vision of life
Vision well known before
You were born
Throwing away standards
You've become outcast
Planes like missiles
In the names of god
Strange vision I dislike
Perplexity of truths
Leading to nowhere
Screaming for vengeance
Screaming for revenge
You set fire under this world
This is your extravagance
And way of life
Perplexity of truths...
You are exulting now
Soon you'll be dead
I kill you in the name
Of my fucking way
My way of life
[lead: Mister]
Perplexity of truths
Leading to nowhere
Screaming for vengeance
Screaming for revenge
You set fire under this world
This is your extravagance
And way for life
Perplexity of truths...
If I want I can be
The right hand of god
The left hand of Satan
It doesn't matter
In my way o life
