

Traveling Wilburys, Borderline

Take me to the heart of you,
Take me to the heart of you,
Take me, take me, take me, take me,
Take me to the heart of you.

Take me to your heart and then
Take me to your heart and then
Take me, take me, take me, take me,
Take me to your heart again.

Take me where the fields are green,
Take me where the fields are green,
Take me, take me, take me, take me,
Take me where the fields are green.

Take me to your heart somehow,
Take me to your heart somehow,
Take me, take me, take me, take me,

Take me cause I need you now.

Take me to cross your borderline,
Take me to cross your borderline,
Take me, take me, take me, take me,
Take me to cross your borderline.

Take me where I wanna be,
Take me from this misery,
Take me, take me, take me, take me,
Take me where I wanna be.

Take me to the heart of you,
Take me to the heart of you,
Take me to the heart of you,
The heart of you...
The heart of you...
