

Traveling Wilburys, New Blue Moon

I don't want nothing
Nothing but you
Am I waiting
Looking for a new blue moon
I'm so tired waiting
Waiting for you
Am I waiting
Looking for a new blue moon

So many moons have come and gone
And none of them were blue
Too many times the sun came up but
It came up without you, you, ya yoo hoo oo

You won't call me
Call me lonely
Am I waiting
Looking for a new blue moon

So many moons have come and gone
And none of them were blue
Too many times the sun come up but
It came up without you, you, you - you yahoo

Someday when you want me
Someday you may see
I was waiting
Looking for a new blue moon
I was waiting
