

Travis Randy, Only Worse

I just dropped in
Cause I could use a friend
And a little bit of consolation
I'm hangin' by a thread
&gt;From the southern end of my rope
If you really wanna know
I'll do my best to explain my situation
Maybe I can find the words
If the tears don't get me first
It's kinda like fallin' from the sky
When your up a mile high
And your parachute won't open
Kinda like clingin' to the bottom
When the bottom drops out
The only way I know to say how bad her leavin' her hurts
It's kinda like a heartache, only worse
It wasn't my first brush with love
But this one was the deepest
Yeah, I've been blue
But this time its closer to black
Swore I'd never get hurt again
But here I am in pieces
When this one broke my heart that was just the start
It's kinda like fallin' from the sky
When your up a mile high
And your parachute won't open
Kinda like clingin' to the bottom
When the bottom drops out
The only way I know to say how bad her leavin' her hurts
It's kinda like a heartache, only worse
It's kinda like being cut open
Kinda like burned burn at the stake
Kinda like drowning in the ocean
Knownin' there's no help on the way
It's kinda like fallin' from the sky
When your up a mile high
And your parachute won't open
Kinda like clingin' to the bottom
When the bottom drops out
The only way I know to say how bad her leavin' her hurts
It's kinda like a heartache, only worse
Only worse
