

Travis Scott, MODERN JAM (feat. Teezo Touchdown)

Yeah, turn up
To the maker
The breaker
Riff shaker, earth shaker
Annihilator
Yeah

Baby, please get off the gram
I like to keep that in the stands
I upgrade my only fan
With you I don't need a camp
This right here my new modern jam
I'm on fire, new burnin' man
She like the view, that's an on demand
He get mad, brought her home from France
This shit wrong, put it on the bible
I like a bi girl on a bitchcycle
Then I bought a car and she feel entitled
My dick so hard, walkin' like the Eiffel
I just need the world, I ain't hard to please
The way I keep the knowledge, they gon' Socrates
I got 'em levitatin' way off the deeds
The way I make it jump, I make it hard to breathe

Ah, ah
The annihilator
Forever [?]
True upgrader
Heart breaker

Baby, don't you now I got to go
Got the glow and they got the show
Know it's been a year since I seen a row
Had me inside like I'm on parole
I'm outside like I'm on control
I hear the Zeitgeist now I'm in the zone
You know they say you up when you finally free
It won't feel right if it's only me
If you're scared, nigga, say a grace
I got the formula like I own the race
I got the keys with me like I own the place
If these niggas on top, then I'm outta space
