

Travis Tritt, If I Lost You

theres been times ive felt like half a man life had me down on my knees troulbed times i dont understand why they happen to me i have struggled through the dark ness and i have found the light of day but if i lost you thered be no sun shine shinin through i dont know what in the world i would do if i lost you
like a ship with no harbor, like a bird with no wings, like a fish out of water, a dreamer without a dream, i have learned about losing i could lose most n e thing,
but if i lost you
thered be no sun shine shinin through
if i lost you
