

Travis Tritt, Love Of A Women

My baby knows me better than I do,
Funny how a woman has that over a man.
I can do anything with her here beside me,
Leaning on her is where I make my stand.
Where would we be without the love of a woman?
Standing behind her man even when he's wrong.
The true, pure, undying love of a woman
Makes a man a fool to think he can make it alone.
My Daddy was a wild one when he was younger,
Everyone told my mamma he'd be hard to tame.
Full of himself, said Sir to nobody,
But you ought to see him come running when mamma calls his name.
Where would we be without the love of a woman?
Standing behind her man even when he's wrong.
The true, pure, undying love of a woman
Makes a man a fool to think he can make it alone.
A man goes crazy tryin' to catch his feelings,
Too much pride or maybe the words come out wrong.
But that's okay, 'cause he's still her hero.
Steady as a rock, her love keeps holdin' on.
Where would we be without the love of a woman?
Standing behind her man even when he's wrong.
The true, pure, undying love of a woman
Makes a man a fool to think he can make it alone.
