

Travis Tritt, Now I've Seen It All

I watched an acorn
Turn into an oak tree
I felt the passion
Of a whippoorwill's Call
And I've seen a flower
Bloom in the desert
But a woman so true
Loving me like you do
Now I've seen it all
I've seen the faces
They chisled in mountains
Marveled in wonder
At stars when they fall
And I've watched the sun set
Slip into the ocean
But a woman so true
Loving me like you do
Now I've seen it all
I feel so unworthy
Of all that you give me, yeah
I could die happy
Just knowing I am your man
I'm so undeserving
I just stand here in awe
But a woman so true
Loves me like you do
Now I've seen it all
I feel so unworthy
Of all that you give me, yeah
I could die happy
Just knowing I am your man
Cause you find perfection
Where others see flaws
When a woman so true
Loves me like you do
Now I've seen it all, yeah
A woman so true
Loving me like you do
Now I've seen it all
