

Treaty Oak Revival, I'm The Worst

Well I know what you're thinking
You got me figured out all wrong
I got a dirty laundry list on me
That reads a mile long
What you looking for a red flag
I got all different kinds
But there ain't no truth to the lies that you heard about me
I got bones hanging next to my clothes
And it's under the nose
It ain't hard to see
I got a price tag on this
Heavy head of mine

And they'd probably rather see me dead than alive
It's okay
I don't really aim to please much anyway
But a name is a name
And mine may as well be a curse
It's just easy to say I'm the worst

You can say that I'm an outlaw
Just a bandit on the run
Riding around with this band of thieves
Tryna steal some hearts for fun
Do me a favor
Save me the bullshit today
'Cause I've got way too much on my plate
Trying to scrub the dust from my name
I guess what I'm trying to say
Is it just ain't me
I'm not the monster that the whole towns trying to find

And they'd probably rather see me dead than alive
It's okay
I don't really aim to please much anyway
But a name is a name
And mine may as well be a curse
It's just easy to say I'm the worst
It's just easy to say I'm the worst

So tell me what I am
Tell me what I'm not
Go ahead and tear my name apart
'Cause the man I am, just ain't the one you want
I ain't gonna change
I'm never gonna stop
We can go on and on and on
'Bout the man I am
Just ain't the one you want

Cause I know what you're thinking
You got me figured out all wrong
I gotta dirty laundry list on me
That reads a mile long
