

Treble Charger, Hint

When these things have all been broken
You can wait for me
Everything you've ever spoken
Complimentary

Continue with deceptive lies
And wrapped around your thin disguise
Ways to let you know
Ways to let you know

Everything we've ever started
You can come and go
Laying loveless, disregarded
I don't wanna know
Complaining that you'll lose your mind
And break me when you find the time
Ways to let you know
Ways to let you know

Time
What you always said before was mine
Tell me more about the days in rhyme
