

Trembling Blue Stars, Farewell To Forever

This is my, my goodbye to a blue-eyed girl
My farewell to forever
No long last kiss, only this
Someone coming to their senses
It's taken me a long, long time to get here

But she's so far from what she was
She doesn't need me like before
There's been too much forgetting
For that part of her busy life
That part for me she sets aside
It's time to stop living

I don't know what my future is
I just know who it isn't with
