

Trembling Blue Stars, Less Than Love

Though there'll always be a part of me
Hoping for a miracle
Realistically I know it is
Over between you and me
And I know too
How it's time
For me to leave the past behind
And what brought this on
This change in me on
Was the turning of
The turning of
The guessing to knowing
The confirming of
All my suspicions
You and him are one
Are one
I've waited all this time
Thinking your thoughts might be with me
To be shown they haven't been
Just to be shown they haven't been
Waited all this time
To be shown how I
Am no longer your life
Am no longer your life
Your life

How do you feel about him now?
How do you feel about him now?
Please don't be settling for less than love
Maybe you're not but I can't help but think you are Help but think you are

Though there'll always be a part of me
Hoping for a miracle
Realistically I know it is
Over between you and me
