

Trent Monk, All I Need

All I want and all I need
You hold all these things
In Your hands (oh Lord, yeah)
I can wish I may and wish I might
But I won't find it in the stars tonight
It's in Your hands (oh Lord)

So all I want is You
All I need is You

So take my heart and take my mind
I want to leave this world behind
I give you everything (All I want is You)
You're the reason that I'm alive today
I throw my cares away
As I stand to shout and sing

All I want is You
All I need is You

So take me and hold me
Shape me mold me
Fall all over me till everything is new
Cause nothing in this world can satisfy me
Cause all I want is You
All I need'

Yeah, You're everything to me
I have nothing without you
Everything I love
Cause there's no love without You
And every part of me
Cries for You (yeah)
Cries for You (yeah)

So take me and hold me
Shape me mold me
Fall all over me till everything is new
Cause nothing in this world can satisfy me
So all I want is You (All I want is You)
All I need is You (All I need is You)
All I want is You (All I Want is You)
All I need (yeah)
All I need is You
