

Tribbs, River (ft. Stephen Puth)

[Zwrotka]

(One more time, one more time)

Run, I'll run so far

Chasing all the stars into the night

I've come, I've come so far

But I never seem to find you in the daylight

But oh, that's how it goes

Sometimes the ones you love don't feel the same

And I know, but I hope

I'll find you here before it gets too late

[Refren]

So I run to the river and I look up to the sky

We're all born sinner but when you look me in the eyes

My heart beat it shivers baby up and down the spine

So I run to the river just to feel it one more time

One more time

One more time

[Zwrotka]

Wait, I'll wait so long

Hoping that you'll turn those headlights back around

I pray, I pray so hard

But I know all those red lights they won't stop you now

But oh, that's how it goes

Sometimes the ones you love don't feel the same

And I know

But I hope

I find you here before it gets too late

[Refren]

So I run to the river and I look up to the sky

We're all born the same but when you look me in the eyes

My heart beat it shivers baby up and down my spine

So I run to the river just to feel it one more time, one more time
