

Trick Pony, One In A Row

Tonight I'll be drikin' tequila
And toasting to old Mexico
Listeing to Waylon and Willie
And feeding the fire down below
It's only been twenty-four hours
Since my baby walked out on me
If everything's right I will make it tonight
'Cause I've got a sure remedey

CHORUS:

From sunup to sundown
I'll paint this one-horse town
I don't give a damn if anyone knows
I'll party on till the heartache is gone
Tonight makes it oe in a row

I'm not concered with tomorrow
It's gonna be more of the same
Dancin' on top of the tables
Till I can't remember her name
Hey bartender break out the bottle
I don't need no salt or no lime
Just keep 'em comin' til my body's numb
She's no longer here on my mind

CHOURS (x2)

Tonight makes it one in a row
Tonight makes it one in a row
Tequila!!
