

Triinu Kivilaan, Easy state of mind

I have seen so many parts of this old house
While its basement seemed so shocked but the carnival went on
I wonder why I cant get in my mind
How it can be: all these ships sinking down while the music plays on REFREN:

Now I woke up so I could stop
I reached this easy state of mind
Neither shames nor in flames
In this easy state of mind
So glad to see where I can be
I reached this easy state of mind
No regrets, no rejections
In this easy state of mind
Fixing all forgotten things that I have left
Reaching out for somethin worth to obtain my world
I realized I will survive this game
And I will see all the gates for the garden full of flowers for me
