

Trina Braxton, Party or Go Home

If you didn't come to party, then you better go home.
(Go home. Go home. Go home.)
Yeah, get it right. She's a pop star.
Big Bully, let's go.
Tree Tree, where you at, baby?

Tonight, this ain't for the bousie at all.
Or The type that likes to hit the club and hold up the wall.
Tonight, I wanna see you with the hands in the air.
When the beat drops, wanna see you shake your derriere.
Tonight, it's gonna be out of control.
Ain't trippin' on dress code.
Party rock on overload.
Can you hear the sound, ooww.
Flashing lights are everywhere.
Dancing like we don't care.
Put your hands in the air. . .
It's gonna be 1-2-3 o'clock, 4 o'clock rock.
DJ playing all the jams so the party don't stop.

Got some drink in my cup, taking me to my zone.
If you didn't come to party, then you better go home.
Ooh, ooh Then you better go home.
If you didn't come to party, then you better go home.
ooh, ooh Then you better go home.
If you didn't come to party, then you better go home.

Tonight, we're gonna party till the new day begins.
Go to sleep, wake up and then we're gonna do it again.
Tonight, we might just do something totally out of the wall.
But nobody really cares cause we're just having a ball.
Tonight, it's gonna be out of control.
Ain't trippin' on dress code.
Party rock on overload.
When you hear the sound, ooww.
Flashing lights are everywhere.
Dancing like we don't care.
Put your hands in the air. . .
It's gonna be 1 2 3 o'clock, 4 o'clock rock.
DJ playing all the jams so the party don't stop.

Got some drink in my cup, taking me to my zone.
If you didn't come to party, then you better go home.
ooh, ooh Then you better go home.
If you didn't come to party, then you better go home.
ooh, ooh Then you better go home.
If you didn't come to party, then you better go home

Hands in the air, drinking my glass
DJ is rocking, having a blast
And nobody cares about the time
We're gonna party all night, yeah!

It's gonna be 1-2-3 o'clock, 4 o'clock rock!
DJ playing all the jams so the party don't stop.
Got some drink in my cup, taking me to my zone.
If you didn't come to party, then you better go home.
Then you better go home.
If you didn't come to party, then you better go home.
Then you better go home.
If you didn't come to party, then you better go home.
