

Trip Lee, Lookin' For Love

"All youve been searchin and lookin in all the wrong places Search no more. Love is here."

Hey I had to write this song cause the masses are mistaken
Theyve confused the word love with infatuation
Its sad cause when we lackin love the wrong path is taken
They missing out cause getting true love is past amazing
Its more than a passing statement, a short lasting craving
It aint refusing not to wait, it aint mad impatience
Some been tryna find love in that guy or gal they dating
And before long they hormones are fastly raging
Yeah true love is a must, but that aint love, its lustin
Love would never ask you to ungodly stuff
Its honest plus, it ain't wrong and hard to trust
Its everlasting and can't happen when the hearts corrupt
Resting on false love you must realized youll plummet
Cause real love is much more than butterflies in ya stomach
Most of us are out of line 'cause really the bottom line
Is we looking for love but aint sure what we tryna find

You tried the pleasures of this world but still theres something missing
Cause when you close your eyes at night you can feel your heart still searching
I know you tired of being let down so you look for love in all the wrong places
So search no more cause its the life of Christ your souls been missing

We must learn that love is perfect, it never will fail
Im ready to tell, its needed and forever prevails
Its so glorious, Im sure we need some more its true
The worlds confused and seems to have a distorted view
Most think loves a sweet kiss, a nice statement in time
But dont know that love is sacred, its patient and kind
Its not filled with sinful jealousy, doesnt brag and boast
Its priceless and cant be bought with a stack of dough
Its so true. Its not rude. It doesnt seek its own
Its selfless, Im telling this because we need to know
Its not easily angered, keeps no record of wrongs
It forgives, its a blessing and forever is strong
It dont delight in evil but it likes the truth
Its liberating never fading and its righteous too
Id like for you to put love first in here
It always protects, always trusts, hopes, and perseveres

You tried the pleasures of this world but still theres something missing
Cause when you close your eyes at night you can feel your heart still searching
I know you tired of being let down so you look for love in all the wrong places
So search no more cause its the life of Christ your souls been missing

I cant stress enough the fact that love will never end
Its eternal better than this other stuff so let it in Such an unusual experience beyond expression
We need it, we gotta seek it, yeah love is a blessin
Utter perfection, but something most guys will lack
So the remaining real questions, Where you find it at?
I know you wondering if you dont wanna die and miss love
Seek Christ, cause the Bible says that GOD is Love
For GOD so loved the world, HE would redeem you and me
Yeah it was love that made HIM bleed and cling to a tree
Thats the truth, so without the SON you losing
HE shows love and for that theres no substitution
We try to fill the void with things of all sorts
But let us stop settling for things that fall short
HE can be the lover of our souls turn now to Christ
Lookin for love? Well true love is found in Christ

You tried the pleasures of this world but still theres something missing
Cause when you close your eyes at night you can feel your heart still searching
I know you tired of being let down so you lookin for love in all the wrong places
So search no more, cause its the life of Christ your souls been missing

You tried the pleasures of this world but still theres something missing
Cause when you close your eyes at night you can feel your heart still searching
I know you tired of being let down so you lookin for love in all the wrong places
So search no more, cause its the life of Christ your souls been missing
