

Tripping Daisy, I'm A Fish

Sitting on the ocean floor, feeling all insight
Diving to our big fish bowl now
Everything's alright
Swimming is all that you do for fun
And dodging hooks from the man up above
I'm a fish
I'm a cool fish
I'm a colorful fish
I'm alive
I'm allowed to be free
Biting in and out of these steps
What a time to be part of such of the sea
Everytime I cruise through a broken ship,
It makes me wonder whats been missing up there
Common sense by the common law
Its where we all stand without even a skip
Oh, no way
Sitting on the ocean floor, feeling all in sight
Hanging with my friend the squid
Now everythings alright
Living by all the people who have died
To see what I see would surely make you cry
Sitting on the ocean floor, feeling all in sight
Hanging with my seahorse friend
Now we can ride all night
And hoping not to swim into a trout
And making sure we always have the very last laugh
All is well on the ocean floor
All could be well on the ocean floor
