

Trish Thuy Trang, Daydream

All I want is change
Excitement something new
Everyday the same
I longed to get away
Take me to a place
That I have never been
Where I can't escape
And paradise begin

I close my eyes
And everything's all right
All that I need
Is only in my dreams

Chorus
All I do is daydream
Hoping wishing waiting
Waiting for my life to change
Everything is fading
Help me save me take me
Take me to my fantasy

Here I am again
In darkness when I wake
Will this ever end
This life that's dull and gray
In my fairytales
Is where I want to stay
My reality is driving me insane

I close my eyes
And everything's all right
All that I need is only in my dreams

Chorus(x2)
