

Trish Thuy Trang, Secret Place

There's a secret place, hidden deep and far away.
Where life is but a dream. Like a fairytale it seems.
All the leaves are green. Gentle kisses, gentle breeze.
Underneath the shade, where we waste the days away.

Chorus

Deep within the trees, mountains and streams.
Is my secret place for always.
Deep within my soul, I'll always know.
Of a fantasy place faraway.

There's a secret place, where our love will always stay.
Forever in time, like the stars up in the sky.
Flowers all around. Magic moments, magic sounds.
Where life is but a dream. Like a fairytale it seems.

Chorus
