

Trish Thuy Trang, Together Again

As time goes by I've been dreaming of you
Holding me into your arms
Think of the day I said goodbye to you
Teardrops just come from my eyes
Being alone stand by the sea
Think of your smile and tears
Praying to god hoping someday
We'll be together again

As time goes by I've dreaming of you
Holding me into your arms
Waiting the day you will come back to me
Feeling your lips close to mine
Praying to god hoping someday
We'll be together again

Think the day I said goodbye to you
Teardrops just come from my eyes
Being alone stand by the sea
Think of your smile and tears
Praying to god hoping someday
We'll be together again

Praying to god hoping someday
We'll be together again...
