

Trish Thuy Trang, You'll Be Sorry

There's a little voice inside my head telling me that soon you will regret.
Doesn't matter
'cause everything will come back to you, so listen to the words I say

*Chorus

baby you'll be sorry
so you better stop callin'
'cause I won't be here
when you realize your mistakes
baby you'll be fallin'
and you're gonna be crawlin'
gonna wish that you never looked my way (look my way)

you will see without me the errors of you past
and i'll be here
just waiting, boy
and i'll have the last laugh(hahaha)

*Chorus

baby you'll be sorry
so you better stop callin'
'cause I won't be here
when you realize your mistakes
baby you'll be fallin'
and you're gonna be crawlin'
gonna wish that you never looked my way (look my way)
