

Trish Thuy Trang, You're My Life

You're my, you're my life.
You're my, you're my love.
You're my, you're my love in my life.

Many evenings all on my own,
until you came and then you
touched my heart and my soul,
you give me your love in all ways,
your love is oh so
mighty good don't you know.
Honey you mean so much to me.
Never know how much I love you.
Your smile is all that I need, each day.
You take all my troubles away.
Whenever you're close, clouds above start to fade.

Chorus
Sometimes our love can be stormy,
but when it's through the skies are clear blue.
'Cause you're for me and your love I will treasure.
How I feel I just say.

You're my life, you're my love.
Never can deny my love for you and.
You're my life, you're my love.
Never let you go.
You're my life, you're my love.
Never in my life had such a feeling.
Everything is bright at day and night because of you.

Loving you is all that I know.
Anything for me you would do.
My love I love you so, always.
Wipe my tears and makes things okay.
Wherever I go tell me you'll do the same.
All my life I never believed,
that my dreams would ever come true.
Oh you're my destiny.
You make me feel lost in your gaze.
Your love is oh so sweet and so wonderful.

Chorus
