

Trisha Yearwood, It's Alright (Jasper County)

Well I'm thinkin' everything's all right
It might be all right for the very first time
Walkin' with a made-up mind
Everybody comin' up wants to know why
I tell 'em 'bout the love
I tell 'em 'bout you
And me skinny-dipping in the Fountain of Youth
Yeah I'm thinkin' everything's all right
It's all right
It's all right

Well I'm thinkin' everything's cool
Ain't no problem lovin' on you
Actin' like I got no sense
But somethin' like this just proves I do
Here you come again
Look at those eyes
Well you get the shade baby
I'll get the lights
And I'm thinkin' everything's all right
It's all right
It's all right

Feelin' great
More than okay
Hey baby what can I say
It's all right
It's all right
It's all right

Well somethin' like this you can't ignore
I'm plannin' on doin' it a whole lot more
And I'm thinkin' everything's all right
It's all right
It's all right

Yeah I'm feelin' great
More than okay
Hey baby what can I say
It's all right
It's all right
It's all right

Hey baby what can I say
It's all right
It's all right
It's all right
