

Trisha Yearwood, Katie And Tommy

Katie sits on her old front porch, watching the chickens peck the ground There ain't a whole lot goin on tonight in this one horse town Over yonder comin up the road, in a beat up Chevy truck, her boyfriend Tommy is layin on the horn, splashin through the mud and the muck Her daddy says he ain't worth the lip
when it comes to brains he's got the short end of the stick But Katie's young and she don't give a care, she'd follow Tommy anywhere
She's in love with the boy
She's in love with the boy
She's in love with the boy
And even if they had to run away, she's gonna marry that boy someday Katie and Tommy at the drive-in movie, parked in the very last row.
They're too busy holding on to one another to even care about the show Later on outside the Tasty freeze tommy slips something on her hand He says my high school ring will have to do
'till I can buy a wedding band
Her daddy says he ain't worth the lip
when it comes to brains he's got the short end of the stick
But Katie's young and she don't give a care,
She'd follow Tommy anywhere
She's in love with the boy
She's in love with the boy
She's in love with the boy
And even if they had to run away,
she's gonna marry that boy someday.
Her daddy's waiting up at half past twelve when they come sneaking up the walk.
He says young lady get on up to your room while me and junior have a talk.
Momma breaks in and says don't lose your temper wasn't very long ago you yourself was just a hasty plowboy Didn't have a load of hope My daddy's said you wasn't worth a lick when it comes to brains you got hte short end of the stick But he was wrong and hunny you are too Katie looks at Tommy like I still look at you
She's in love with the boy
She's in love with the boy
She's in love with the boy
What's meant to be will always find a way
She's in love with the boy
She's in love with the boy
She's in love with the boy
What's meant to be will always find a way
she's gonna marry that boy someday.