

Trisha Yearwood, The Flame

(Joe Henry/John Barlow Jarvis)

O come ye now unto "The Flame"
Keep it through the night
Nourish it and share its warmth
And spend its precious light
The torch is passed among us all
To help us understand
A covenant of brotherhood

That joins our open hand
O come ye now unto "The Flame";
Keep it through the night
Nourish it and share its warmth
And spend its precious light
Eager souls are rising now
Hungry for the wind
Each heart knows eternal love
Will bring us home again
