

Tristan Prettyman, I'm Not Your Anything

I'm not your anything baby I never was something for fun
something just because

I'm not your anything and baby I never was open me up

read me like a book I'll give you back
everything you took every breath
every single look

and I'm just scared you'll find something a little better than nothing I'm scared that you'll find the best
settle for less

if I'm a wick
your a flame
light me on fire
to see just why you came blow me out
when you realize who's to blame

a little better than nothing
settle for less
