

Tristan Prettyman, Love, Love, Love

well it's 4 am the paperboy's at it again but I can't get no sleep I mean what's the point if I can't even dream up a dream that's worth the keep and so there's no need in even going cause I'm much better off never knowing you know the media's gettin really good at lyin' and this time around, well i'm not buyin' cause this life is a beautiful one and though I've seen it comin' undone Well I know most definitely that it's gonna be you
its gonna be me
so baby keep your head up keep it on the up and up and know now cause you got all my love love love cause we're all just lovers and takers breaking hearts to make the papers she wants love, I told her stop trying cause the reasons for your tears aren't worth crying and this life is a beautiful one and though I seen it comin' undone well I know most definitely
love love love
lovin all around me well I think that love has found me lovin all the time when the summer's here the waves are crashin' no time time for thinking, don't even ask me gonna let it all roll right past me cause when I'm here, I'm always happy And this life is a beautiful one
it always works out the way it's meant to be
love love love
