

Tristan Prettyman, Most Of The Time

I am crazy most of the time but I am simple in this restless mind of mine give me something that can grow a love that I will always know you make this girl shine almost all of the time

like a letter sealed with a kiss this is a love I love to miss and if only I could find the type of words to describe I'd probably take up all of your time all your time

never mind the secrets that you keep cause I wanna know what it takes to move the ground beneath your feet I wanna see a smile that laughs let you have my better half cause you make that girl shine

the type of words to describe
id probably take up all of your time

I am shy most of the time but I'm a quiet in this busy mind of mine
