

Trivium, Falling To Grey

In this day aspirations star decayed
It was the light of our desires
A fire burns in the mind
Torching once fundamental truths
Downfall
Self loathing it's your state of mind
Drowning in dejection
Homicidal of your talents
It's mental suicide
Downfall
One by one they all drown
Down the path I can't hear

To feel this pain with you
To feel this pain with you
To feel this pain I'm falling to grey
To feel this pain with you
Buried dreams will withered dried
Sorrow is your guide
You haven't the will to carry on
You'll feel better when you're gone
Downfall
One by one they all drown
Down the path I can't hear

If I may realign the scriptures
For fallacy's decay
Reclamation of the spirit
First step in taking back your life
Downfall
One by one they all drown
Down the path I can't hear
