

Trivium, Washing Away Me In The Tides

[Japanese version track]

Disgusted with what I see
So many pieces left of you and me
Glass falls like rain
I'll crucify you for this pain (for this pain)

Tonight I leave this town
In love I'd burn it all down
(To the ground) you're nothing to me
(To the ground) you're fucking killing me
Abandon all hope washing away me in the tides
Unclenching the fists made round my neck accepting the end

Longing to see your face
So my hand can form into a mace
Everything smells of you
Even the gasoline that covers you

[The version of the song from "Ascendancy (Special Edition)" (2006) and "Underworld"

Tonight I leave this town
In love I'd burn it all down
(To the ground) you're nothing to me
(To the ground) you're fucking killing me
Abandon all hope washing away me in the tides
Unclenching the fists made round my neck accepting the end

[Guitar Interlude, Solo]

Everything smells of you
Even the gasoline that covers you

Tonight I leave this town
In love I'd burn it all down
(To the ground) you're nothing to me
(To the ground) you're fucking killing me
Abandon all hope washing away me in the tides
Unclenching the fists made round my neck accepting the end

Abandon all hope washing away me in the tides
Unclenching the fists made round my neck accepting the end
