

Trobar de Morte, Morrigan

She told me in my dreams, that she'd be with me.
She promised me that she'd take care of me for eternity.
She is death, she is life... My goddess Morrigan!
She is death, she is life... My goddess Morrigan!
She is the light that guides me in my uncertain destiny
She told me not to be afraid and to take her hand.
I was so alone, I asked my queen to give me the will to fight, and my sword flew, stained with blood... Staining the universe.
She is death, she is life... My goddess Morrigan!
She is death, she is life... My goddess Morrigan!
