

Trollfest, Dance Like A Pink Flamingo

Everybody hit the dancing floor
Get your freak on and dance like a pink flamingo, Like a pink flamingo
Everybody hit the dancing floor
Get your freak on and dance like there's no tomorrow,
Like there's no tomorrow
This world is a ripe disgrace
With all the selfish whim
Like parasites we infest
Bleed all resources dry
No hope no change will come
Power sits in comfort
We won't do anything
So why don't we all... dance
The fertility dance
Let them biological chemicals run through your dance
Jump, take the bravery jump
Feel your worries float away as you step out, and...
Take a walk on the wide life side
Take a walk on the wide life side
Everybody hit the dancing floor
Get your freak on and dance like a pink flamingo, like a pink flamingo
Everybody hit the dancing floor
Get your freak on and dance like there's no tomorrow,
Like there's no tomorrow
Chance, take a little chance
Someone else will fill the need and everything will probably,
Turn out great
Everything is so great
It's finally time for you to shine, if you go out, your door
And really...
Take a walk on the wide life side
Take a walk on the wide life side
Everybody hit the dancing floor
Get your freak on and dance like a pink flamingo, like a pink flamingo
Everybody hit the dancing floor
Get your freak on and dance like there's no tomorrow,
Like there's no tomorrow
You put your head up, and make a stroll around
You put your head down, and take a stroll around
You take a look left, and then you stroll around
You take a look right, and then you stroll around
You put your head up, and make a stroll around
You put your head down, and take a stroll around
You take a look right, and then you stroll around
Everybody hit the dancing floor
Get your freak on and dance like a pink flamingo, like a pink flamingo
Everybody hit the dancing floor
Get your freak on and dance like there's no tomorrow,
Like there's no tomorrow
We all tell selfish lies, to keep on dancing
That leaves a ripened world, for overlord taking
While we rave about, our own mirror reflection
Our overlord will seize
And take what's for the taking
