

Trouble, The Tempter

I am the tempter
Ruler of hell
Bringer of evil
Beware

Watch for temptation for it is there
Takes his time but loves to dare
All the people they are losing their minds
He don't care, takes all kinds
Says love won't you take a bite
God appears says "this ain't right"
We are damned for what evil has done
You know now the Tempter has won

I am the one
The almighty
I'll give you the good things in life
Take me

It is said God tempteth no man
Keep in mind you know he can Listen to one now this we must
For we are all conceived with lust
The tempter, he taketh you brain
WE know now who will reign god says it bringeth forth sin
Take my word it brings on death

This time you have won but what about the next
You know I'll get you
Bastards

When you are losing your mortal soul
It's too late to cry to the Lord
Hear me now all you sinners
