

Troye Sivan, Silly

I'm still in it like that
Baby, I'm a love junkie like that
I'm so silly like that
Can you hit me back?
'Cause you really know me
But, you don't wanna know me

All the bodies on the floor collide
Everybody's out here looking right
The party's the only place that really knows me
I'm just tryna get outside of this body

I still love you more than I should say
I'm just tryna put that ... away
Don't need anybody here to console me
I'm just tryna get outside of this

I'm still in it like that
Baby, I'm a love junkie like that
I'm so silly like that
Can you hit me back?
'Cause you really know me
But, you don't wanna know me

I'm still in it like that
1, 2, 3 I'm a love junkie like that
I'm so silly like that
Boy, can you hit me back?
'Cause you really know me
Yeah, but you don't wanna know me

Alterate my mind to be like you
There's only so much a party can work out, a party could do
I don't need anybody here to console me
I'm just tryna get outside of this

I'm just recreating you
I'm working with what I got
Fill up my cup and shoot
Yeah, I just
Gotta rewire my desire, getting me higher
And higher

I'm still in it like that
Baby, I'm a love junkie like that
I'm so silly like that
Can you hit me back?
'Cause you really know me
But, you don't wanna know me

I'm still in it like that
1, 2, 3 I'm a love junkie like that
I'm so silly like that
Boy, can you hit me back?
'Cause you really know me
Yeah, but you don't wanna know me

Baby, I'm a love junkie like that
Can you hit me back?
'Cause you really know me
But, you don't wanna know me
Know me...
