

True Vibe, I Am Forgiven

Once I didn't know about you and I wondered where I'd go
If I left this world behind
Then I trembled when I saw the destination of my soul
And on bended knees I cried

Then My inner eyes were open
And I saw my only hope was you
Believe that you were sent to set me free

And I am forgiven
Yes I know you are risen
And open up the door
Into to heaven
I m forgiven

What a lord you are, a savior full of life
Everlasting king of kings
What a price you paid, to save the souls that took your life
The very ones that you forgave
With your blood you wash me white as snow
And I don't worry where I'll go
No power can separate me from your love

I am forgiven
Yes I know you are risen
And opened the door into heaven
I m forgiven

Look down, look down, please look down on me Jesus
I want to thank you and praise your holy name

I look up, look up, up into the heavens
And I know that's where I'm going one day

Cause I am forgiven
Yes I know you are risen
And opened up the door into heaven

I m forgiven (ooohh)

Yes I know, I am forgiven
I know
I know I can face tomorrow
Because you live
I know I can face my sorrows
Because that love you give

Sweet Jesus gave his love to me
Sweet Jesus died and set me free

I know
