

Truman, Girl with a pearl

A car trip: a motor crash. Glad you came around just to tell me that.
You look good. Ego trip. You turned yourself around like I knew you could.
And now youre upside down in only seconds flat.
You tell me that youre this, but I dont think that.
With all that said and done, I know youre lying.
I know you. I know you are.
One look: a double take. Im broke and confused from the mess I made.
A day trip, a lunatic. Im outta my mind, but I dont feel sick.
And now Im upside down in only seconds flat.
They tell me that Im this, but I dont think that.
With all that said and done, they know Im lying.
They know I. They know I am.
Earthquake, feel it shake. The sky is coming down that should seal their fate.
A black car, motorcade. Theyre falling into line with the truth parade.
And now theyre upside down in only seconds flat.
I tell them that theyre this, but they dont think that.
With all that said and done, I know theyre lying.
I know they, I know they are.
I know they are
Upside down in only seconds flat.
They tell me that youre this, but I dont think that.
Upside down in only seconds flat.
They tell me that Im this, but I dont think that.
Upside down in only seconds flat.
I tell them that theyre this, but they dont think that.
