

Trust Company, Running From Me

Say a prayer for me cause I can barely breath I'm suffering, and I can't take it Because of me no one will ever see this side of me if I don't make it

Its like I can't wake up its like I cant get up its like I cant remember who I used to be am I running from you or am I running from me?
Its like I can't wake up
its like I cant get up
its like I cant remember who I used to be am I running from you or am I running from me?

Clear a path for me because i can barely see I'm stumbling and I can't shake it it's up to me to save myself from me my enemy but I can't face it

Its like I can't wake up
its like I cant get up
its like I cant remember who I used to be am I running from you or am I running from me?
Its like I can't wake up
its like I cant remember who I used to be am I running from you or am I running from me?

I'm breaking out
I'm breaking out
I'm breaking out
I'm breaking out
breaking out
Here I come
here I come
here I come
Can't wake up cause I'm not around am I running from you or am I running from me?

Its like I can't wake u
its like I cant get up
its like I cant remember who I used to be Am I running from you?
Can't face myself
I'm just left with the suffering.
