

Trust Company, Silently

So this time
I am the one to blame
The last time
I Almost drown
It did not feel the same And Now I am Withholding all the pain and I Still remember how i hurt myself
when i shut this all away
this time no one can hear me as im screaming on the floor i feel so far away from healing so im stepping back inside stepping back inside of me this time the voice is screaming it screams in me silently and now i am wanting this to change cause this time love come too far and i cannot run away and i know the ends not far away cause i still remember how i hurt myself

it screams in me
SILENTLY
