Tryad, Arcadia

don't feel so strong sometimes so i must lean on myself sometimes and i don't really know how i'll get by but i keep moving on the weather beats down sometimes so i go under that tree so high and i wait for that sun that's due in life

'cause i live for that dream life is but a dream it's a choice mentality it keeps me going on i can dream

i'll just keep reaching for arcadia
