

Tugana, Lost In This World

I'm walking along a lonely road, thinking why do you love me so
Thinking what makes me interesting, thinking why do you love me in the end

Would you love me if I didn't have a band?
Would you love me if I couldn't stand?
Would you love me if I weren't me?
Would you love me if I couldn't see?

I'm lost in this world
And I ain't in the mood to live
every time, when I see you leave
I think this is it

(I'm) walking along the misty hills, thinking why do you make me so ill,
I don't know what I should be thinking, but I know what I should be feeling.
