

Tune, Change

Look around, my love
You're like everyone
You've lost your way back home
In crowded corridors
Empty hearts
Broken thoughts
People clones
In a perfect world

And nothing's ever gonna change
If you wait in line for another day
Don't be afraid to rearrange
It's the right time for you and me to come away
/2x

Look around my love,
Is this what you want?
You may start it over
Let yourself go
Rebel heart
Rebel soul
Run away
From this evil world

'cause nothing's ever gonna change
If you wait in line for another day
Don't be afraid to rearrange
It's the right time for you and me to come away
/2x

to come away
to come away
to come away

'cause nothing's ever gonna change
If you wait in line for another day
Don't be afraid to rearrange
It's the right time for you and me to come away
/2x
