

Turbo, The Last Warrior

The Last Warrior
Ages show in his face
He is scared like no one else
Warrior heart made of steel
He's got an iron will
He doesn't know humility
God is coming - god of war
Cold blooded - he kills quickly
Here he is - the warrior!
Fighting forever - for a life
This is a neverending story
Who will stay among the living?
You must fight. Kill him - hurry!
No one knows the future
Destiny is still unknown
You better leave last warrior!
Destiny is still unknown
Computers are so crazy
They are just like giants
Brainless and so lazy
But they know the isolation
So much occult in the mist
Beautiful islands, there is no evil
There is no ruler besides the besides
Messenger from "Kingdom Sad"
He is already the last man!
This is the last warrior!
