

Turbonegro, Drenched In Blood(D.I.B.)

It's a tidal wave
A tidal wave
It's a tsunami of Blood

Blood in your nose
Blood in your eyes
Blood in your mouth
Blood in your face
Blood every day

Blood in your hair
Blood everywhere
Blood on the scene
Blood where you've been
Much more blood that you ever have seen

When your eye's all crazy
And your minds all hazy, now
Drenched in blood again
When you're drowning in blood like a rat in a flood, now
You're drenched in blood again
When it's raining from the sky and you know you're
Gonna die, now
Drenched in blood again
And again

Blood on your feet
Blood in your meat
Blood in your seat
Blood on your lens
On your Mercedes Benz

Blood on your back
Blood in your sac
Blood in your crack
Blood in your tracks
Much more blood than you could ever pay back

When your eye's all crazy
And your minds all hazy, now
Drenched in blood again
When you're drowning in blood like a rat in a flood, now
You're drenched in blood again
When it's raining from the sky and you know you're
Gonna die, now
Drenched in blood again
And again

You wanted blood
And now you got it
Hey, it's only natural
And now you got it
And now you got it

When your eye's all crazy
When you're drowning in blood like a rat in a flood, now
When it's raining from the sky and you know you're
Gonna die, now
Drenched in blood again
And again

One two cut you!

Wo, Wo, Wo, Wo, Wo
Wo, Wo, Wo, Wo, Wo

Drenched in blood
