

Turin Brakes, Everybody Knows

(One, two, one, two, three, four)

From the look in your eyes
From the way you cross the road
From the strength of your drink
The way you watch the TV

Everybody knows, everybody knows
Everybody knows, everybody knows

The way the words fall out your mouth
The way you break into every smile
The way you're biting your tongue
The way that you stumble home

Everybody knows, everybody knows
Everybody knows, everybody knows

Don't you leave me on the floor
Where's your answers for everything?
Don't you leave me
Everybody knows, everybody knows

Don't you leave me on the floor
Where's your answers for everything?
Don't you leave me
Everybody knows, everybody knows
Everybody knows, everybody knows

The way the words fall out your mouth
From the way you cross the road
From the strength of your drink
The way you watch the TV

Everybody knows, everybody knows
Everybody knows, everybody knows

Everybody knows, everybody knows
Everybody knows, everybody knows
