

Turn Off The Stars, I Wasn't Ready

Everyday's not like any other day
With all that I have here and you
Everyday's not like any day before
With all that you gave me gets me off the floor

Oh my soul was dry
Oh could I feel you tonight
Oh my soul was dry

Everyday you remind me of the time
When nothing else mattered just you and I
All my life has always been so black and white
All these colours, these colours they bleed to one

Oh my soul was dry
Oh could i feel you tonight
Oh my soul was dry

Maybe I'll begin again
Maybe I will live again
Maybe I'll begin again
Maybe we will sing again
