

Twarres, Between Two Houses

Between two houses
Was born our friendship
Our friendship is still here
Like it always was
We were just kids
When we used to play
And sharing every candybar
Like we always did
Now we are bigger
We have lived our own lives
Good and bad times
we've shared
Between two houses
Was born our friendship
Our friendship is still here
Like it always was
